Mural Painting – May, 2009

Art Club

In July, a few keen art enthusiasts gathered in a cozy afternoon to paint a mural for DGJS Hotel School. Our old girls splashed their love and fun under the mid-summer sun, and enjoyed a BBQ and pizza party after completing the task.

The Calbee factory visit was held on July 11. The response was overwhelming with 56 attendees visiting the factory at Tseung Kwan O. The attendees gained first-hand knowledge and experience of potato chips production from raw potatoes to the final product. Everyone enjoyed the visit, especially the tasting of freshly made potato chips.

Annual Dinner – October, 2009

Social Sub-Committee

The 2009 DOGA Annual Dinner – “Heritage and Homage” was successfully held at the Grand Stage on October 14. It was the first time we chose this venue. The turnout was excellent with 469 old girls spanning across 50 years (1954 to 2004). The three highlights of the evening were raffles sales by the General Committee, sale of the “Heritage” and “Homage” Timber sets, and a slide show which captured memorable photos of the old campus. Best Turnout Class went to Class of 1992 with 48 old girls.

Stained Glass Painting- November and December, 2009

Art Club

In November and December, the Art Club invited both old girls and their children for two afternoons of fun with stained glass. The children made their own little stained glass stickers, while the mothers created stained glass paintings for the DGJS Hotel School.

Mini Bazaar – December, 2009

Social Sub-Committee

The Mini Bazaar was held on December 17 at the temporary campus of DGS in Sham Shui Po. A group of old girls came back to assist in selling the souvenirs at the event. Some of the interesting items included the limited edition timber set. For old girls who have pre-ordered the souvenirs at the Annual Dinner, they were given the option to pick them up at the Mini Bazaar DOGA booth.

From now on, old girls can order souvenirs from the DOGA office by submitting a downloaded form from DOGA's website. Full details of this service can be found at www.doga.org.hk.
